

Nina Lazendić was born in Ljubljana, Slovenia on October 5, 1998. She graduated from the lower and secondary Music School in Užice in the theoretical department, piano, flute and solo singing. After finishing bachelor academic studies - solo singing, in Kragujevac at the music department in the classes of prof. Marina Trajković - Bidžovski and prof. Vojislav Spasić. The Master of Academic Studies continues at the Faculty of Music in Ljubljana in the class of prof. Therese Plut.

Nina performed as a soloist at many concerts and charity events. She is Awarded member of "Angel Voice team". Some of most important Awards are:

- International Music Festival "Petar Stojanović" - Ub 2017. - I award
- International Music Festival "Angel Voice" - Belgrade 2020. - I award
- International Music Festival "Primavera" - Bijeljina 2021. - I award
- International Music Festival "Slovenian Music" - Belgrade 2021. - First prize
- International Music Festival "May Music Festival" - Bijeljina 2021. - First prize
- International Music Festival "Abanico" - Sofia, Bulgaria 2021. - GRAND PRIX
- International Music Festival "Angel Voice" - Belgrade 2021. - I award
- International Music Festival "Aphrodite voice" - Limassol, Cyprus 2021 - First prize
- "Thalia Award" - Belgrade, Serbia, 2021 - First prize

According to artistic and stylistic sensibilities, she is close and familiar to the arias of Eurydice, Musetta, Despina, Maria, Silva, Giudite, Magda, Varvarina...